Everybody's Talking

Turn the Knob: What if you don't know what kind of tattoo you want? A tattoo shop in Dallas, Texas has a solution. For $100 a client can turn the knob of a giant gumball machine, spitting out one plastic gumball which contains a sketch of a tattoo. That randomly picked tattoo is then inked onto the clients skin for no further cost.

Crazy for golf: In golf, a long hole usually means it will take five or six strokes of the club to get the ball into the hole. Adam Rolston completed a long hole that was much, MUCH longer: it measured more than 2,000 kilometres and required 20,093 hits to get the ball to the hole.

Lost loves: People in Hanoi, Vietnam who are sad because of the break-up of a relationship have a new way to become happy again – they take items from the relationship (love letters and gifts) to the Old Flames Market. The idea is to help people get rid of reminders of old relationships by trading or selling the items, rather than harming the environment by throwing them out.

Did You Know...

One wife: American actor Jack Nicholson is famous for his roles in many movies, including One Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest and The Shining. He has had several long-term relationships but was married only once, to Sandra Knight from 1962 to 1968.

Little lake: The small country of Slovenia, which borders Austria, Hungary, Croatia, and Italy, is home to Bledsko Jezero (Lake Bled). This glacial lake in the country's northwest attracts tourists in both summer and winter for recreational activities.

Bird's-eye view: Auckland, on New Zealand's North Island, is home to the Sky Tower. At 328 metres (1,076 feet) high, the tower has a revolving restaurant and great views. The adventurous can even arrange to go bungee jumping.
