

The BCI Library has many helpful resources to help each of us reflect and learn as we continue to process the devastating impact of residential schools.

There are many excellent print and electronic resources available in our library. Please request print resources by reserving a title in our Library Learning Commons catalogue (video of steps) or by completing this book reservation form.

Our local public libraries also have many very helpful resources available.
Waterloo Public Library - Orange Shirt Day

Learn More

Government of Canada - National Day for Truth and Reconciliation

History of Orange Shirt Day