

NUTRITION BREAK EXPECTATIONS

- Students are expected to remain in their seat while eating
- Once finished eating, students may chat with friends, draw, read, or other quiet activities in the classroom
- Use of technology (Chromebooks and/or cell phones) is not permitted during Nutrition Breaks
- Students should not be leaving the classroom, unless they have permission from the on-duty teacher
- Students will wait until the first bell rings to put away their lunch pails - after which they are to gather their materials and head to their next class

