

4th Annual Family Conference

Saturday, October 20 8:30 am – 3:30 pm

St. James Catholic High School, Guelph

This FREE event is intended for parents and caregivers of children with learning disabilities. The focus is providing parents with tools and strategies to aid them in supporting their children.

The day will include a keynote speaker and choice of breakout sessions led by inspiring professional speakers.

We are thrilled that this year's keynote speaker is Dr. Peg Dawson, internationally acclaimed psychologist and co-author of the 'Smart but Scattered' series. Her keynote address is Beyond "Lazy and Unmotivated" – Why Parents and Teachers Need to Know about Executive Skills. Learn more about the keynote address and breakout sessions on our website.

Conference sponsored by a Parents Reaching Out (PRO) grant from the Ministry of Education.
