Bowling and Movie Day Information!!!!

Students will arrive at school at regular time and report to homeroom. Buses will pick students up at the school at 9:00 am and take them to their initial destinations. We will be returning back at school at approximately 2:35 for a regular dismissal at 3:00. We will need parent volunteers for these activities but we cannot guarantee that their admissions will be covered.

Bowling (AM):

-students should bring a pair of indoor running shoes in case the alley cannot provide all of us with the necessary footwear

-concession stand will be open if students wish to purchase lunches

-students who do not wish to purchase a lunch should bring food for the day

Movies(PM):

-we will be going to empire theaters in Kitchener (Gateway Park)

-we will be having a private screening of "McFarland" which is rated PG for the following reasons: thematic material, some violence and language

-concession stand will be open if students wish to purchase lunches

-students who do not wish to purchase a lunch should bring food for the day

Please see below, detach and return by June 6th
