

Canadian History Resources for 1920s

Before you simply Google a word or two, peruse the following websites for reliable, accurate and succinct information.

1. Search the Virtual Library for useful databases. Go to library.wrdsb.ca and look for these icons (Each of these databases has ready-made citations too!)

	Click on Explora in the Secondary icon display and then select History→More . Now, use the alphabet list to locate specific events and people (i.e. Jazz Age and Prohibition)
	Click on Gale Online Sources and then Canada in Context → History (View All) and then look for names and events connected to your topic.

2. Use the following direct links to specific websites for your topics:

Canadian Cars
Roaring Twenties – General
Could You Survive in the Twenties?
Radio
Prohibition
Science and Technology Museum
Before e-Commerce
History by Decade
Canada's Olympians
Businesses in Canada
AGO—The Art Gallery of Ontario
The Famous Five
Fashion and Styles of the 1920s
The Henry Ford Museum

3. . Consider these resources as well. Bookmark them for future use.

Other Databases/Websites
Parliament of Canada	www.parl.gc.ca
Canadian Museum of History	http://www.historymuseum.ca/home
Canada: A People's History Resource	www.cbc.ca/history
Canadian Encyclopedia	www.thecanadianencyclopedia.ca/en/
CBC Digital Archives	http://www.cbc.ca/archives/