Everybody's Talking

Soaking in minerals: Milk River is a resort town located in south-central Jamaica. A local mineral spring, called Milk River Bath, attracts tourists who are looking for relief from rheumatoid arthritis. The waters in the bath are 32°C to 35°C year round and contains minerals such as calcium and sulphate. Bathers are advised to limit their soaks to between 10 and 20 minutes, and to enter the waters no more than 3 times a day. Taino caves and Farquhar's Beach are located close to Milk River.

Nuns get clothing: When thinking about bank robbers, masked men usually come to mind. This isn't the case in Tannersville, Pennsylvania. Cashiers at a local bank were confronted by thieves dressed as nuns. One of the two blank-and-white robed thieves demanded cash while the other waited at the door. The pair left empty-handed, running out the door into broad daylight.

Did You Know...

Big stones: On May 5, 1995 a hailstorm blew through the area around Dallas, Texas. Some of the hailstones were the size of tennis balls and softballs, causing considerable damage.

Play a song: There are hundreds of musical instruments available that people can learn to play. Classes of instruments include percussion, woodwind, brass, keyboard and string.

Little Lake: The small country of Slovenia, which borders Austria, Hungary, Croatia and Italy, is home to Bledsko Jezero (Lake Bled). This glacial lake in the country's northwest attracts tourists in both summer and winter for seasonal recreational activities.

On the Lighter Side

Golfer: "Why do you keep looking at your watch?"

Caddy: "This isn't a watch. It's a compass."

I'm so unlucky that I get papercuts from get-well cards.

How does an elephant get down from a tree? Sits on a leaf and waits until autumn.

Laugh and the world laughs with you. Cry and you have to blow your nose.

Quotes of the Month

"Error is a hardy plant; it flourisheth in every soil." Martin Farquhar Tupper
