

HHSS Celebrates Earth Day!

On April 22, students at HHSS will be beautifying the school grounds by spending a small, but essential bit of time picking up unsightly trash and potential recyclables. This civic-minded activity helps to ignite life-long concern for the environment and build connections between students, teachers and our natural world.

Green Earth Club

Many thanks to the HHSS Green Earth Club and the Leadership Classes for making this activity possible!