

Some of you may be wondering why we have a fence in the front of the school....

Will my kids have recess here? No, we will still be playing out back. This space is for learning within the outdoors.

It is a dream in process... an outdoor classroom with endless possibilities for your children.

What will we do in here? Learn math, music, language, art, explore nature and much more.

PIC•COLLAGE