Where summer fun and friends meet! The City of Kitchener Neighbourhood Camps are delivered at select schools and community centres in your neighbourhood; offering active games, songs, crafts, sports and special guests to children ages four to 13.

Please note: All locations are proposed and may be subject to change in location. Children must be toilet trained and have completed JK prior to program registration. Participants will be split into smaller groups on the first day based on age, ability and best fit. Neighbourhood Camp leaders are trained in Standard First Aid and police screened.

Program location subject to change based on program availability.

Register online
