

CHARACTER EDUCATION

The culture of Lexington P.S. is built on the guiding principle of RESPECT. “Everyone has the right to be respected and the responsibility to respect others.” We work to create a safe and caring learning community. Our HEART Pledge and Eight Core Attributes provide a common language and framework for encouraging and honouring respectful behaviours. We stress that interactions with peers and adults be based on respect. This leads to respectful problem-solving and respectful decision-making.