

INQUIRING MINDS

- WHO: -YOU (JK → Grade 6) and your Parent/Guardian
- WHAT:
- Pick the most interesting topic you can think of and research that topic with your parent/guardian
 - Develop a display and possibly a physical project together at home
 - Display your work as part of the Inquiring Minds Exhibition
 - Invite grandma, grandpa, aunts, uncles, cousins, neighbours, etc to attend the Exhibition, view projects, and ask questions
- WHEN:
- April 16, 2015
 - 6:30 to 7:30
- WHERE: -Mackenzie King Gymnasium
- WHY:
- Learn more about your favorite topic in the World!!
 - Work together with your parent/guardian on a Fun project.
- HOW:
- Select a topic
 - Submit a request for a display board before March 12th
 - Take home your display board on March 24th
 - Attend the Exhibition with your completed display which might include an associated project you have developed
 - Explain your display/ project to people who attend the Exhibition
 - Contact Inquiring_Minds_Exhibition@mail.com if you have questions
- COST: -FREE!!

Inquiry-based learning is a process where students formulate questions, investigate to find answers, build new understandings, meanings and knowledge, and then communicate their findings to others.

EXHIBITION 2015