

April 1, 2020

Kari Hueber khueber@kwsymphony.on.ca

The Kitchener-Waterloo Symphony Cancels the Remainder of the 2019/20 Season

Based on the recommendations of public health officials and government, and in the interest of public safety, The Kitchener-Waterloo Symphony, has made the decision to cancel the remainder of the concerts in the 2019/20 Season, including the following performances and activities:

- April 18, May 2 & 16, 2020 – Kinderconcerts Series: The Sticky Pine Tree
- April 21 & 22, 2020 – School Concerts: The Orchestra Sings
- April 24 & 25, 2020 – Pops Series: JANE In Concert
- April 25, 2020 – Youth Orchestra Concert 3
- April 29, May 1 & 2, 2020 – Baroque Series: Bohemian Rhapsody
- May 8 & 9, 2020 – Signature Series: Boléro
- May 12-14, 2020 – Community Outreach Week
- May 22 & 23, 2020 – Pops Series: Back to the Future In Concert

Cancellations that had previously been announced include:

- March 18, 20 & 21, 2020 – Baroque & Beyond Series: Bach & Math
- March 27 & 28, 2020 – Pops Series: The Music of Harry Potter
- April 3 & 4, 2020 – Signature Series: Joy & Passion: Schumann & Brahms
- April 4, 2020 – Family Series: Sun & Fire

Ticket holders for cancelled concerts have a number of options, including donating the value of their tickets, receiving a credit to be used towards a future concert, or receiving a refund. Full information regarding ticket options can be found at kwsymphony.ca.

Over the coming weeks and months, the KWS will be inventing and experimenting with new ways to bring the experience of orchestral music to audiences and the community.

To support efforts to contain the spread of COVID-19, The Conrad Centre for the Performing Arts, in-person box office and phone answering services, and the KWS administration offices are closed until further notice. Patron Services Representatives and administration staff are working remotely during this time. Patron Services can be reached at patronservices@kwsymphony.on.ca

For questions please contact Kari Hueber at khueber@kwsymphony.on.ca