Brick walls shelter the living
However the walls are decaying ; broken
But you don't hear a sound
Not one creak
The walls were loosing their existence
Then someone noticed
They repaired the damages Making the walls stronger falling so slow

like fragile tiny shells
drifting in the foam
Little soldier boy
Come marching home
Brave soldier boy
Comes marching home
Those leaves did grow
on branches overgrown drifting slowly down

resting on the loam
little soldier boy
taken from home
forced to fight a war
that's not his own Leaves from the vine
falling so slow
Like fragile tiny shells
drifting in the foam
Little soldier boy says
"Carry me home"
Sleeping soldier boy
is carried home
