Dear Parents,

We are excited to have a very special guest coming to present at Tait St. on Wednesday, March 25th. Thanh Campbell is a speaker with an incredible story which he has documented in his compelling autobiography, Orphan 32:

Nearly two decades long, the Vietnam War was one of history's devastating battles. More bombs were dropped than both World Wars put together. Lives were destroyed and families were torn apart. In 1975, the last flight out of Vietnam rescued 57 war orphans before the Communists took over the south capital of Saigon. En route to Canada, numbered 32, Nguyen Ngoc Minh Thanh was aboard that flight; I am Orphan 32.

Mr. Campbell will present his inspirational story to the students at an assembly during the school day at both Moffat Creek (A.M.) and Tait St. (P.M.), and we are delighted to announce that, in conjunction with Tait St. P.S., we will be offering a special presentation that evening for Tait St. and Moffat Creek parents and community members. It will take place in the library at Moffat Creek P.S. on Wednesday, March 25 at 7pm.

There are many important messages that Mr. Campbell will touch on during presentations to students and parents alike – please see the reverse of this letter for more details. If students or parents are interested in purchasing the book Orphan 32 from Mr. Campbell at either the day or evening session, the cost is $20. A portion of the proceeds will be returned to the school as a donation.

We sincerely hope that parents and grandparents will be able to join us for the evening presentation that Tait St. and Moffat Creek School Councils have sponsored. With both you and your child(ren) having the opportunity to hear Thanh speak from the heart about so many significant issues, it can open the door to important conversations in your home and will surely be an enriching family experience.

Thank you,

M. Lubert, Principal
