

Two-time Canadian Country Music Awards nominated recording artist,

Ryan Laird will be presenting his anti-bullying education concert at Williamsburg Public School on January 7th.

The morning assembly includes a musical performance, anti-bullying motivational talk with audience participation and a small question and answer period.

The purpose of the concert is to reach out to students who have experienced bullying and assist them to find ways to stand up for themselves, believe in themselves and pursue their goals. Ryan communicates this message by sharing his real life experience of being bullied and how he successfully overcame these obstacles and accomplished his goals.

There will also be an autograph signing after the show and fabulous merchandise for our Williamsburg students to purchase.

Merchandise List:

Posters: $5

CD's: $15

Tee Shirts: $20

FREE download of Anti-Bullying Song:

We are encouraging students to better welcome Ryan by learning his hit song about bullying, entitled, "Hey Ashley".
