

Finding Secondary Sources

Go to wod.wrdsb.ca → Select Library → Select Search the Virtual Library and login with your school account

Most of the online databases are under either GALE or EBSCOhost. However, depending on your research topics, there are additional databases you could use as well.

One useful feature for the Gale products is its integration with Google Drive. You can download your search results directly to your own Google Drive and refer to them later.

Suggested Database		Comments
Gale Online Resources → Literature Resource Center		Biographies, reviews and scholarly articles.
Gale Online Resources → Canadian Content → CPI.Q (Canadian Periodicals Index)		Canadian-focused journals, magazines, and newspapers.
Novelist Plus		Comprehensive listing of plot summaries.
EBSCOhost → Literary Reference Centre Plus does not link with Google but you can create an account.		Glossary for literary definition, biographies, reviews, magazine articles and literary criticism
EBSCOhost → Canadian Reference Centre		Reviews and scholarly articles
EBSCOhost → Advanced Placement Source		Academic journals and magazines. Look for the hyperlink next to the icon
EBSCOhost → Newspaper Source		Newspaper articles. Look for the hyperlink next to the icon.
Gale Online Resources → Global Issues in Context		Current and historical perspectives on global issues.
Canadian Points of View		Look at both sides of current and controversial issues.