

Grade 9 Course Selection for Grade 10 English

1. For students currently in ENG1DI or ENG1PD who are considering applying to a post-secondary school in the future, choose

ENG2DI

This course builds on the skills learned in ENG1DI, with an emphasis on learning formal, academic writing. Units of study include persuasive techniques (debates), novel study, Shakespearean drama, and an Independent Study. Students who are successful are considering applying to post-secondary school upon graduation are then recommended for ENG3UI.

2. For students currently in ENG1DI or ENG1DP or ENG1PI who are considering only applying to college in the future or going to work upon graduation, choose

ENG2PI

This course builds on the skills learned in ENG1PI, with an emphasis is placed on improving literacy skills in preparation for the OSSLT. Units of study include leadership, novel study, and 'pop-culture' Shakespeare. Students who are successful in this course are then recommended for ENG3CI or 3EI.

3. For students currently in ENG1LI who will go to the workplace after graduation, choose

ENG2LI

This course is intended to prepare students for reading and writing success in their daily lives, in the workplace and in the Grade 11 and 12 courses. Units include a mystery unit, a novel study, and nonfiction texts. This course builds on the reading strategies learned in ENG 1LI, but a main focus of the course is writing for different purposes and for different audiences. Students who are successful in this course proceed to ENG 3EI.
